Commission Chooses Chairman, Vice Chairman for 2020

Shalimar – The Okaloosa County Board of County Commissioners have chosen the new leadership team for the 2020 calendar year. Commissioner Trey Goodwin, who represents Western Greater Fort Walton Beach, the Florosa area and the City of Mary Esther, will serve as chairman. Commissioner Carolyn Ketchel, who represents Eastern Greater Fort Walton Beach, Okaloosa Island, Shalimar and parts of Valparaiso will serve as Vice Chairman.

“I am excited to begin this important role in 2020,” said Incoming Chairman Goodwin, “the commission will continue its focus on improving infrastructure capacity and quality of life in Okaloosa County – especially our roadway systems.”
