Commissioner Nathan Boyles to host Town Hall Meeting (North Okaloosa Planning Study)

Okaloosa County, Florida – Okaloosa County Commissioner Nathan Boyles (District 3), will host a Town Hall meeting on Tuesday, April 2, 2024, at Baker School gymnasium, located at 1369 14th Street Baker, FL 32531, related to the ongoing North Okaloosa County Planning Study. The meeting will begin at 6 p.m.

The purpose of the meeting is to listen to concerns from residents, dispel any existing misinformation about the study and to discuss how the County and residents of north Okaloosa County will work together to preserve agricultural and rural traditions while responding responsibly to any future growth.

“This is an important issue for north Okaloosa residents and I look forward to listening to their concerns and gathering feedback,” said Commissioner Boyles.

The meeting is open to the public and members of the media. It will be streamed live on the Okaloosa Board of County Commissioners Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/OkaloosaCounty/>.

Information about the north Okaloosa County Planning Study can be found at <https://www.inspire-engagement.com/north-okaloosa-plan>.

This is not a meeting of the Board of County Commissioners, nor is it governed by the provisions of section 286.011, Florida Statutes. However, multiple members of the Commission may attend.

Okaloosa County adheres to the American Disabilities Act and will make reasonable modifications for access to this meeting upon request. Requests may be made to the County Commission office (850-651-7105) and must be made at least 48 hours in advance of the meeting in order to provide the requested service.
